CCR Re accelerates its transformation

CCR Re expands its structure and creates a new website.

The new operations management structure includes the deputy underwriting officers and technical accountants. Allied with artificial intelligence technologies, the combined teams will improve process efficiency and enhance service quality.

The role of the new development, strategy, retrocession and marketing division is to drive portfolio growth.

In this context, Isabelle Bion has joined CCR Re as chief operations officer and member of the executive committee. Within the committee, the responsibilities of Patrick Delalleau and Hervé Nessi have been redefined. The former has taken up the position of chief strategy and development officer, and the latter has become global chief underwriting officer.

CCR Re has also launched its new website, ccr-re.com, with features that place human relations at the core of its business operations for an optimal client experience.

Bertrand Labilloy, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of CCR Re commented: “I’d like to congratulate the CCR Re teams for their renewed efforts to transform the Company and support our ambitions.”
